

2025 Lake Redstone Protection District in cooperation with Sauk County Sponsored Healthy Lake and Rivers Projects

Owner Mathew and Jill Hink	Methods Applied. Diversion, Rain Gardens and Rock Infiltration	Goals - To protect the waters of Lake Redstone from runoff as related to this property on the Lake. The owners believe improvements to the Lake require will be provided by this project.
Before - Diversion and Rock Infiltration.		Before - Diversion and Rain Garden		After - Diversion and Rock Infiltration	After - Diversion and Rain Garden	After - Diversion

Owner Ed Lichner	Methods Applied. 350 Ft² Native Planting, 35 Feet of Lakeshore Restored	Goals - To protect the waters of Lake Redstone from runoff by creating Native Planting area to help with sediment runoff protecting Lake Redstone
Before	After

Owner Howard Spivack	Methods Applied. 350 Ft² Native Planting, 35 Feet of Lakeshore Restored	Goals - To protect the waters of Lake Redstone from runoff by shoreline stabilization.
Before	During	After

Owner Craig Hillman	Methods Applied. 350 Ft² Native Planting, 35' Lakeshore Restored	Goals - To protect the waters of Lake Redstone from runoff by shoreline stabilization. Improve aesthetics of the property.
Before	Before	Before	After	After

